Thea Stilton big trouble in the big apple

Author : Thea Stilton

Translator : Emily Clement

This is a story about the Thea sisters. They are Nicky, Colette, Pamela and Violet. Nicky is the most active. She has joined the Marathon. While she is practicing, she meets a girl who has joined the competition also. However, the girl Rhonda doesn't want to speak to her. She looks down on Nicky. Rhonda is self-centered. Nicky is good-tempered and she isn't angry at her. She even helps Rhonda when she falls down in the competition.

Before she has her competition, Pamela's pizza outlet has to face a problem. Someone wants them to sell the shop. That person has even set a fire. Therefore, the Thea sisters want to find the suspect to solve the problem. They have found that he is called Phoenix and he is the one who said he would help them if they gave him their shop. However, they can't find any evidence. They think of an idea. They will go to Phoenix's house to ask for sweets. Phoenix doesn't have any sweets, so they ask him to go and buy some. When he has gone out, they found the evidence. They can finally help the police arrest him. They celebrate together happily at the end.

Reflection

I love this book because it is very beautiful. It is suitable for us to read. I think this story tells us not to look down on anyone because everyone has his strengths. His story also shows us how to get along with others. We need to treasure our friendship. We need to learn from Nicky. She is tender. Therefore everyone loves to make friends with her. Do you want to gain more friendship? You can try to be kind and generous.
